YOUR DESIGNER

Ruxana Oosman is an interior designer based in central Vermont where she runs her eponymous design firm, Ruxana's Home Interiors LLC.

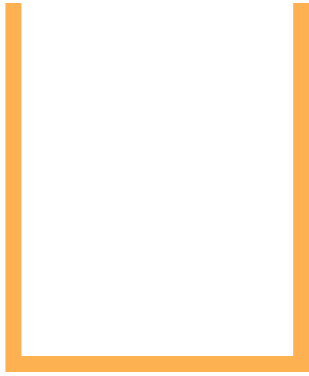

Ruxana received her BA in Interior Design and her extensive world travels, combined with her years of professional experience, have cultivated her understanding of a vast array of design styles and a keen eye for interior architecture.

“I believe that service is about providing hospitality and warmth to my clients through my signature design delivery process. I believe that my clients are partners in the design process.” Ruxana and her team act as their clients’ advocates and they endeavor to build client relationships that last a lifetime.

Ruxana has been featured in many regional publications and television including New England Fine Living blog and WCAX Channel 3 News.

OUR PORTFOLIO

Ruxana's Home Interiors, LLC, is a boutique interior design firm specializing in full-service interior design, project management, consulting, furniture and accessory procurement.

Clients select our firm because they want to work with a knowledgeable, passionate and experienced design professional to advise and guide them. Our clients trust us to listen to their ideas, understand their needs and help them realize their dreams.
